

The 7 Dollar Secret

I just bought an infoproduct for 7 dollars. I surf a lot, I go to different websites, look at different sales pitches by so many so-called "Internet gurus", learn a lot from them, but rarely do I buy any of the products being sold. The only times I do are when I find the promotion really compelling. Needless to say, even with this cautious stance of mine, I still sometimes end up being frustrated with what I had bought.

But not this time. This time I can happily say that it was well worth every penny I paid for it. But first of all, let me show you what caught my interest right off the bat. The landing page for this infoproduct had this to say:

Looking for a way to start creating an income online?
Trying to break into creating your own informational products? Having problems selling the ones you've already created? Need a way to boost your conversion rates AND your profits? Then listen up, because I'm about to show you...

How I Made Over $3,000 in Only 7 Days with a Simple 30-Page Report.

I've been wanting to boost my online income. I've also learned that selling your own product is one of the best ways. I've also learned that information products are some of the best selling products out there. I have a lot of information that I wanted to share. There are many knowledge areas I could possibly teach. But I didn't know where to start or how to go about it.

This report showed me how. This report has set me on a clear starting point of writing my own simple, inexpensive information products. Watch for them soon!

I recommend you at least take a look at what Don Morris, the author of the report has to say and if you're really serious on embarking on generating serious online income for yourself then I suggest you buy it too.
